

PURPOSE

IN THIS PLACE

Before you begin, pray for direction.

Imagine yourself in a room with Heavenly Father. There is so much love there. You are asking him questions -- Questions like - Who am I? What are my gifts? What can I improve on? What do you need me to do? Pay attention to your thoughts and feelings. The answers to your questions will come as impressions to your mind and heart. As you start getting ideas, write them all down. As you write, more will come. Keep writing. These categories are just there for direction. Use them as guides and know we will sort through the details after. Right now we are just writing inspiration.
